

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS

FOR AN INTERNATIONAL WORKING GROUP ON

YOUTH POLICY AND THE ROLE OF YOUTH WORK IN

PREVENTING VIOLENT EXTREMISM OF YOUTH

25/10 - 28/10/2017. BRUSSELS. BELGIUM

The main goal of this project is to set up a series of meetings between youth workers and youth policy stakeholders to present and discuss the needs of youth workers in the prevention of processes of youth radicalisation leading to violent extremism. During a full four day meeting in Brussels, youth workers will have the chance to re-view work dedicated to this topic, exchange ideas and practices, and formulate key messages for the use of youth policy actors at European level. In the follow up actions, participants in the projects will be able to report on the conclusions deriving from the meetings and work sessions to their national and regional governments.

Profile of the participants:

- Youth workers or youth leaders (employees or volunteers) active with young people in the framework of open youth work associations, groups and projects whether they are member of the European Confederation of Youth Clubs (ECYC) or not
- Educators and project leaders, in a broad sense of the term, i.e. carrying out open youth work educational activities with young people;
- Motivated to work and to develop collaborative European multiparty projects that develop the Human Rights perspective;
- Interested in developing their competence in the themes of youth work preventing violent radicalisation of youth;
- Resident in one of the 48 European countries;
- Aged between 18 and 30;
- Able to work in English.

All candidates must apply using the enclosed application form (please type, no handwriting!). Applications should be sent to ECYC's Secretary General Rares Craiut by email at ecyc@fcjmp.be
